Experts Start German Debt Probe In Paris

General Dawes Opens Session With Declaration Of Aims Of Investigation

GERMANY MUST BE REBUILT

"Strictly Business And No Politics" Is Motto Adopted By Representatives

By Associated Press

Paris — With Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes presiding, leading businessmen and financiers of the United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy, sitting as a board of directors and creditors, began to examine the assets and liabilities of Germany, their nations' lebtor, with a view to saving something from the ruins of the most stupendous bankruptcy in the history of the world.

"Strictly business and no politics," was the motto under which the representative men of the leading nations of the old and new worlds assembled.

"The success of this committee," said General Dawes in opening the meeting, "depends chiefly on whether in the public mind and conscience of the allies and of the world there is an adequate conception of the great disaster which faces each aily and Europe unless common sense crowned king."

GERMAN SOLVENCY ESSENTIAL

European credit, General Dawes said, had suffered a shock as the world had seen Germany's esonomic life ebbing—"because," he added, "the world realizes that if the German people lose their capacity for work, Germany loses her capacity to pay those reparations which are so great an element in European solvency."

"Any common sense individual," he continued, "can estimate the distance a well man can run, but 50 medical experts about a deathbed would give 50 opinions on how far the individual could run if he got well. The reparation commission and the world," he said, "have thus far been listening to medical experts on Germany's capacity to pay.

"Let us first help Germany to get well," the General added. General Dawes spoke of the committee as "practical men free from political pressure, who realizing that the house is afire, propose to find some water to put it out without further use of mathematics involving the fourth dimension."

General Dawes praised the reparations commission's idea in giving the committee of experts a free hand and made the comment that the committee was not asked to determine the legality of the Ruhr occupation or the "political effect of this or that act of common sense." The committee, for the moment, he said, was less concerned with Germany's capacity to pay "than with the present capacity and courage of this committee to act."

He reminded the committee that he could speak neither for the American government nor for the American people.

"But as an individual," he asserted "I read in shame and humiliation the outpouring of the American nationalistic demagogues who undertake to lecture Europe in order to lift themselves into some petty office or to maintain their political popularity." He said he did not know whether a common sense reparation conception existed, but added "but we shall know. To this knowledge of whether this conception exists the result of our work and the action of the reparation commission thereon will perhaps be the final contribution."

Mr. Dawes said he highly appreciated the commission's wisdom in setting the task of stabilizing German currency and balancing the German budget, for if this were done without fear or favor and the reparation commission ratifies the action, it would start Germany toward productivity. The re-establishment of German productivity is the starting point of European prosperity," he said.

After the introductory speeches, the chief delegates of the reparation commission withdrew from the committee room leaving the experts to get down to business.

RUM BANDITS GET $100,000 WHISKY

By Associated Press

Newark, N. J.—Two truckloads of bonded whiskey valued at $100,000 were taken from the warehouse of the Pierce, Butler and Pierce Co., by eight bandits after they broke into the building and bound and gagged the Negro watchman.

John Brown, the Negro watchman, sounded an alarm by rolling to a telephone and kicking it over.

Brown says two bandits went to the fifth floor and loaded the cases of liquor on an elevator. The cases were carried from the building to two motor trucks.

Meanwhile, Brown says, the other thieves forced him to make his rounds and send his customary signals. When the liquor was on the trucks, he was bound and gagged.

Franc Hits Low Record

New York — Heavy selling of the foreign exchanges in European markets caused sharp recession in British, French and Dutch rates at the opening of Monday's foreign exchange market here. Demand sterling dropped 3⅜ cents to $4.23; French francs broke 22½ points to 36.95 cents. Italian lire advanced 10 points to 4.49½ cents, selling for the first time higher than French francs, which created a new low record for all time.

SENATOR HAS NEW PLAN FOR VETS' BONUS

Bursum, New Mexico, Proposes Return Of Insurance And Family Allotments

By Associated Press

Washington—Another soldiers' bonus bill was proposed Monday in the senate. It is sponsored by Senator Bursum, Republican of New Mexico and calls for return to the veterans of family and insurance allotments deducted from their pay and a percentage of their subscriptions to liberty bonds while in service, plus additional compensation at the rate of $20 a month for each month of service.

Payments would be made in cash over a period of four years, one fourth of the veterans to be paid each year in full or in the form of insurance, as they might elect. The insurance would be payable at death on the basis of $100 for each $100 of cash due, or the policy might be surrendered at the end of 20 years at its cash value, based upon annual premiums plus 4 per cent interest.

Estimating that 75 per cent of the veterans would elect to take insurance, Senator Bursum calculated the cost to the treasury at $125,000,000 each year for the first four years and $60,000,000 annually for the succeeding 16 years.

DENTIST FROZEN TO DEATH; MAYOR LIVES

Ashland Men, Exhausted By Cold On Fishing Trip, Lie In Snow 8 Hours

By Associated Press

Ashland—Dr. F. N. Schlect, Ashland dentist, was frozen to death in the woods near Topside lake Saturday night while on a fishing trip. Mayor Charles Bloss who accompanied him is in an Ashland hospital with his feet and hands frozen, and may lose some of his fingers and toes. The two men became exhausted when returning to camp and lay in the snow eight hours. They were found at 3 o'clock Sunday morning by Ernest Scott of Ashland, who heard the mayor calling for help. Doctors were brought to Topside where the men lay on a hand car. Mayor Bloss who was brought to Ashland, will recover, physicians say.

CITES PROSPERITY TO LAUD DRY RULE

Washington—The "doleful chorus" of broadway's big hotels and restaurants will answer the question of prohibition's success or failure, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, New York, president of the Anti-Saloon League of America, declared Monday in addressing its annual convention.

Citing the prosperity of banks, life insurance companies and the decrease in un-employment as answers to the question "is prohibition a failure," Bishop Nicholson declared that "to climax it all, the national wealth has just been doubled in ten years and the major part of the increase has been during the past five years."

Chicago is an example, the bishop said, of how laws may be enforced in a great city. The saloon, he asserted, has been smitten "hip and thigh, but we must carry on; it is stunned but ever and anon it comes to itself and is still defiant."

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS ASK CUT IN TAXES

Petition Congress On Question Of Earned And Unearned Incomes

AMENDMENT SEEMS CERTAIN

Suggest Placing $5,000 To $7,000 In Same Class With Workers

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1924 by the Post Pub. Co.

Washington—Congress is beginning to hear from the country on the subject of earned incomes as contrasted with unearned incomes.

Widows, orphans, invalids, pensioners and others whose main source of income is derived from investments are asking that they be given the same 25 per cent reduction as would be granted under the Mellon plan to the wage-earner and salaried individual.

Senator Smoot, chairman of the senate finance committee, feels sure that before the tax bill is finally adopted some amendment to take care of those who would be affected by the unearned income question will have to be inserted.

INVALIDS COMPLAIN

The complaints from those who are in the unearned income class range from widows who have families to support out of the income of life insurance bequests to invalids and other dependents who live on funds either accumulated by them when they were able to earn their own living or invested for them by others.

The situation can be cured in large part by the adoption of an amendment which would place all persons of the unearned income group who receive amounts up to five or seven thousand dollars a year in the same category as the earned income group, namely, making the 25 per cent reduction apply to both. This, of course, might have to be limited only to those whose income tax returns show that this income is their only means of support, because otherwise is might operate as a 25 per cent reduction on the first five or seven thousand dollars received from investments by those who are well able to pay a higher tax because they have other sources of income.

Some talk is being heard about limiting the 25 per cent reduction on earned incomes only up to and including 25 thousand dollar incomes. Such a proposal is not, of course, predicated on the idea that it is just for one class of earned income to be distinguished from another, but simply on the theory that persons above 25 thousand dollars, even though they use physical or mental energy instead of money capital, can afford to pay the higher tax. The objections to this will be numerous, no doubt, as it will be called a tax on brains and a destroyer of incentive. The treasury has given no indication as yet that it will approve any of the amendments suggested either for the earned or unearned income groups but some modification will surely be made in either the senate or house.

DEMOCRATS PICK CONVENTION CITY

Financial Consideration Is Large Factor In Determining Choice

By Associated Press

Washington — A panorma of presidential prospects has been prepared for the members of the Democratic national committee who meet here Tuesday to select a convention city and transact other business of the party.

Friends of William G. McAdoo, Senator Underwood of Alabama, Governor Smith of New York, John W. Davis of West Virginia, Dr. A. Murphree of Gainesville, Fla. and other potential contestants for the nomination are vigorously presenting the claims of their candidates.

Selection of the convention city is expected to be sharply contested with the supporters of various candidates jockeying for geographical advantage, and with financial offers from the contending cities admittedly an important item in view of the committee treasury's deficit of about $180,000.

PRELATE REFUSES HONORS TO SLAIN REVOLUTIONARY

Paris—Dispatches from Speyer, Bavarian Palatinate, says that Bishop Sebastien of that city refused to permit the holding of a religious service over the body of Dr. Heintz, the Separatist leader, who was assassinated recently. The reason for the prelate's refusal, which it is said, was in accordance with insturctions from Cardinal Faulhaber, was that Dr. Heintz was a revolutionary. Civil honors were paid to the deceased.

THIEVES TAKE $1,000 IN MILWAUKEE ROBBERY

Milwaukee—Thieves late Saturday night or Sunday morning forced the safe at the Western Iron Stores Co., and took $1,000, according to the police. The case was reported to the police by Walter W. Ethier, vice-president of the company who visited his office at 10 A. M. Sunday morning.

Noted Song Writer Ill

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond, shown here, famous composer of songs, is ill in her southern California home. The widow of a physician, Mrs. Bond was left virtually penniless at the age of 30. Undaunted, she resolved to make her own living by writing songs. For a good many years it was a bitter struggle, but with the composition of "The End of a Perfect Day," her fame was established. Since that song, of which 5,000,000 copies have been sold, she has written scores of other favorites.

Badger Officials May Take Hand In Milk War

By Associated Press

Madison—Possibility that state officials may take a stand on the Chicago milk war as far as it affects Wisconsin producers was reported here Monday. A statement from officials, expressing their views on the situation is the likely course that will be followed, it was said.

Although Commissioner of Agriculture J. D. Jones, Jr., declined to make a statement at present, he said that his department is considering the milk question. A decision as to what procedure will be taken is expected Monday or Tuesday.

Governor Blaine also has been presented with the question indirectly, it was declared. When asked whether he intended to take some action, the governor stated he has not been appealed to directly.

Marketing Commissioner Edward Nordman stated that he would observe a policy of "hands off" and expressed belief that the situaton will "iron itself out" in a short time.

PICKETS TAKE STAND

Kenosha—Kenosha-co was bristling with irate milk producers Monday who were picketing the various milk stations of the county to prevent the shipping of milk to the Chicago market as a continuance of the strike for a $2.75 per hundred price for milk. Sheriff Fred Pabst was called to Bristol, Bassetts and Wheatland where milk stations are located, and where it is declared that the illegal methods of picketing are being used by the farmers to prevent the delivery of milk. It was stated thta the deputies would be called out to guard the stations.

SHERIFF ON GUARD

Racine—Telephone messages Monday expressing fear that men picketing roads south of Burlington might repeat attempts made at interference with farmers delivering milk to companies in that locality, led to the departure of Sheriff Werry and a corp of deputies for the scene of the reported trouble.

Farmers in the Burlington district say they are taking no part in the Chicago milk war and are merely delivering their milk under contract to Burlington firms. The Farmers Marketing Co., one of the firms handling the product, avers that it is shipping to regular customers in Chicago and has nothing to do with the war.

DAIRYMAN INJURED BY IRATE FARMERS

Striking Milk Producers Tip Truck Of Man Who Attempts To Run Gauntlet

By Associated Press

Lake Geneva—William Schultz, a dairyman living near here, is recovering from injuries received Monday when he attempted to run a truck load of milk through a gauntlet of irate farmers, who gathered early in the day at the local Borden plant to prevent deliveries.

The local farmers at a series of meetings last week decided not to deliver milk unless the former price of $2.65 per 100 pounds was restored with contracts running for six months. The distributors in the Chicago district have cut the price to $2.60. Schultz, driving a heavy truck, attempted to run his load of milk to the condensery but the men on guard stretched a rope across the road with the result that Schultz's truck was overturned and he was injured. The farmers who refuse to meet the cut and are attempting to prevent others from selling at the new price, are disposing of their products to independent dealers in this locality.

PNEUMONIA CLAIMS FAMOUS PHYSICIAN

By Associated Press

San Francisco—Dr. Albert Abrams, internationally known physician, founder of spondylotherapy, and more recently inventor of an apparatus with which he claimed he could diagnose a disease by testing a drop of blood, died at his home here late Sunday night of pneumonia.

Dr. Abrams' "Electronic Reactions of Abrams" created much dissension of medical circles. By it he asserted he could even tell the sex and approximate age of a person from whose veins the blood was withdrawn for the test.

He was a fellow of the Royal Medical society of London, and of the Authors' club of London. He was honorary president of the American Association for the Study of Spondylotherapy and president of the American Society of Physcho-Physical research.

KLAN MAKES WAR ON VICE IN MICHIGAN

By Associated Press

Mount Clemens, Mich.—The Macomb-co jail Monday was filled to capacity as the result of a sweeping drive Sunday against alleged bootleggers, gamblers and keepers of disorderly houses following a secret invasion of the county by agents of the Ku Klux Klan. While city and state police were bringing prisoners to the jail Sunday morning, 1,500 members of the Klan gathered in the First Presbyterian church and held ceremonies, including the burning of the fiery cross.

Thomas P. Sykes, pastor of the church, visited the jail following the Klan meeting and looked over the prisoners. He has been active for several months in urging a cleanup drive in the county and has scored officials for alleged laxity in law enforcement.

Evidence on which the raids were [illegible] based, it is said, was obtained by secret agents of the Klan, working through members of the order.

CREVISTON APPOINTED ADJUTANT OF LEGION

Indianapolis, Ind.—Appointment of Russell G. Creviston of Marion, Ind., as national adjutant of the American Legion to succeed Lemuel Bolles of Minneapolis, Minn., who resigned recently, was confirmed Monday by the legion's national executive committee. Creviston has been assistant adjutant.

Lawyer Confesses To Slaying Of Wife Who Shot Her Own Brother

Distant Kinsman Of Lincoln Admits Using Poker As Weapon

BURNED BODIES IN FURNACE

Infidelity Given As Cause Of Quarrel; Slayer Offers Self-defense Plea

By Associated Press

Aurora, Ill.—Warren J. Lincoln, lawyer, horticulturist and distant kinsman of Abraham Lincoln, confessed Sunday night that he killed his wife, dismembered her body, and burned it, Jan. 10, 1923, along with that of her brother Byron Shoup who, he maintained, had been shot to death by Mrs. Lincoln.

Lincoln disappeared from his home, April 30, last and his wife and Shoup were suspected of murder. He suddenly re-appeared on June 10, explaining his absence by charging that Mrs. Lincoln and Shoup had kidnapped him, only to disappear again four months later when whispers of suspicion that he possibly had slain his wife and brother-in-law reached him. A fortnight ago the Aurora police located Lincoln in Chicago, last Thursday, through the firm with which he sought employment. Arrested Saturday and confronted with charges that he had done away with the brother and sister, Lincoln confessed, concluding with "I'm glad to get that load off my soul."

"I suspected my wife of being untrue to me," Lincoln said after the confession. "Many times she tried to poison me. I saw the man with whom she had been associating leave my house. That started the final quarrel. "I saw fire gleam from her eyes. She fired three times at Byron, who had upbraided her for being unfaithful to me and trying to kill me. Each bullet struck him in head. He fell, and I grabbed a poker. First I knocked the gun from her hand. Then I swung for her head. She fell dead. I cut up the bodies and burned them later."

RETURNED FOR MONEY

Lincoln, in his confession, told how he had observed with satisfaction acceptance of the theory that he had been murdered. He told how he traveled about the country in fancied security and of his return because he needed money.

He admitted insertion of "personal" advertisements in newspapers signing them Lina, his wife's name, and admitted authorship of letters to his wife's relatives, asking and receiving money from them in Mrs. Lincoln's name, and confessed signing Shoup's name to a check on an Aurora bank, where Shoup had a large account.

In each instance of advertising and letter-writing, Lincoln is said to have used a typewriter with a green ribbon, and it was through that means that the police were aided in fastening the slaying of Mrs. Lincoln on him.

If Lincoln's story is accepted, authorities pointed out, he will have established a case of self-defense. It is not wholly accepted now, and the state must establish the facts of the death of Mrs. Lincoln and Shoup in order to demand punishment for the lawyer.

Towards that end, a guard was established about the Lincoln home and greenhouse Sunday night so the ash pile might not be disturbed. The police are said to retain a burned metal coat button and belt buckle found after Lincoln disappeared the first time.

HOUSE BREAKS TRUCE TO OPEN WAR ON RULES

Insurgent Republicans Join Forces With Democrats To Secure Revision

By Associated Press

Washington—Laying aside all other business, the house Monday plunged into a fight to the finish over rules with Republican insurgents and Democrats in combination to upset the republican organization program.

The parliamentary skirmish was an outgrowth of the speakership deadlock. After holding out for a week against the reelection of Speaker Gillett, the insurgents swung to his support when assured that the house rules would be "liberalized."

A 30-day truce was agreed upon, during which the rules in effect in the last congress were to prevail, to give the rules committee an opportunity to recommend amendments.

The month of grace expired Monday with both the insurgents and Democrats dissatisfied with the recommendations of the rules committee of which Representative Snell of New York, a regular Republican, is chairman.

Refusal of the committee to repeal the Underwood rule which restricts amendments from the floor to tariff and revenue bills and its recommendations that petitions toe discharg dations that petitions to discharge committees from consideration of legislation must contain at least 150 signatures, bore the brunt of the Democratic-insurgent attack.

There appeared no opposition to the rule committee for the creation of a veterans committee to handle all legislation affecting World war veterans except the bonus and pensions.

SWAMP GIRL GETS 3 YEARS; PAROLED

Mary Lawando Pleads Guilty Of Attacking Stepmother

Wausau—Mary Lawando, known as the swamp girl of Marathon-co was sentenced late Saturday to three years in the woman's state reformatory, on a charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm. She was, however, paroled immediately after her sentence.

The sentence and parole came as the sequel to an attack on Mrs. Walter Lawando, the girl's stepmother, on July 10, 1923. Mrs. Lawando was beaten into unconsciousness and evidence pointed to her stepdaughter as the person who attacked her. For nearly ten days, a sheriff's posse searched a great swamp in the neighborhood of the Lawando home where it was believed Mary was hiding. At last she was captured when she came to the home of a settler in quest of food.

The girl entered a plea of guilty to the charge on which she was sentenced. Mr. and Mrs. Lawando declared they held no ill-will against the girl.

BAYFIELD GIVES KLANSMAN 'GATE'

Superior—John Meeker of Indianapolis, Ind., an organizer for the Ku Klux Klan, was ordered to "leave Bayfield and stay out" by leading citizens of the Chequamegon bay city following a secret meeting at a church there in which the Indiana man attempted to organize a branch of the Klan, according to a special story received by the Superior Telegram Monday.

The story stated that Meeker had left the city declaring he was going "to organize Superior" and other cities and towns in the northern part of the state.

DEPARTMENT CONCLAVE POSTPONED; BLAINE ILL

Madison—The conference called by Governor Blaine for Monday between the state board of control, the health department and state superintendent of schools to consider cooperation between the departments looking toward elimination of duplication of efforts, was postponed. Governor Blaine is confined to the executive mansion with a slight attack of cold, it was said, and for this reason the conference was postponed until next Monday. The governor's condition is not serious, it was stated.

Man Freezes To Death In Little Chute

After lying outside in the snow and cold, probably most of the night, Hubert VanderLoop, 48, who lived at the Hammen hotel at Little Chute, was found about 7:15 Monday morning by a passerby and taken into a nearby home where he died about 15 minutes later. VanderLoop attempted to talk when he was found by Joseph VanHandle but was too weak to make himself understandable.

Considerable mystery surrounds the tragedy. Mrs. Hammen, proprietress of the hotel, said he left about 7:30 Sunday evening, saying he was going to a show. He was not seen again until this morning, it was said at Little Chute.

VanderLoop came to Little Chute from Holland about 18 months ago. The only relative in this country is a niece living at Kimberly. Two sisters are living in Holland, it was learned.

INFORMER BEATEN BY BOOTLEGGERS

Gang Prevented From Throwing Aged Man In Canal By Lights Of Auto

By Associated Press

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—Battered into insensibility and nearly dead from the terrific beating handed him by a gang of supposed bootleggers, William Forsyth, 50, of this city, staggered into the olice station here late Sunday.

Forsyth, so Chief of Police Young said, had on several different occasions furnished the officers with information on which they had made successful liquor raids.

It is believed that his assailants were bootleggers who had learned of his actions and wished to put him out of the way.

Forsyth was walking west on Portage-ave when four young men hailed him, and when he did not stop, rushed towards him and administered the brutal beating.

"Let's throw him into the canal," said one of his assailants, and the others readily agreed.

Then, hoisting their intended victim to the top of the rail, they prepared to commit him to an icy grave.

The arrival of an automobile before whose lights the assailants fled alone saved the aged man's life and toppling weakly from the rail, he managed eventually to make his way to the Central station. He could give the police no clew as to the identity of his assailants.

ANTHRAX CLAIMS VICTIM IN NEENAH

Theory Is That Shaving Brush Given As Present Caused Infection

By Associated Press

Neenah—Anthrax claimed its second victim in Wisconsin in 22 years, accordnig to medical men here, when Ferdinand Pluger, 68 years old, died at his home Sunday.

A shaving brush presented to Pluger as a Christmas present is suspected as the source of infection and has been sent to the University of Wisconsin chemical laboratory for examination. Pluger developed a small sore on one cheek five days after using the brush.

The only other death from anthrax reported in Wisconsin during the past 22 years, medical men say, occurred in Milwaukee six years ago.

MUST SERVE YEAR FOR TAKING AUTO

Arnold Hoerning's passion for joyriding was to be tested out Monday afternoon during his trip to Green Bay. He will stay there 12 months, but not of his own choosing.

The trip was to be made in company with Otto Wickert, undersheriff, as a result of a sentence passed Monday by Judge A. M. Spencer in municipal court on the charge of taking an automobile without the owner's consent.

Hoerning, whose home is north of here, borrowed a Ford car from the August Jahnke garage on Dec. 11, and failing to return with it, was discovered by Mr. Jahnke in Mountain. Mr. Jahnke brought him back to Appleton and turned him over to justice.

SEVERAL NEW BOOKS SHARE POPULARITY IN LOCAL LIBRARY

Locke's Newest Book, "The Lengthened Shadow," Is Interesting

People who frequent the Appleton Public library expressed no particular desire for any one book last week, but showed the most interest in the new books that have been placed on the shelves. A decided preference for books of fiction was noted. "Riceyman Steps" by Arnold Bennet, "Rover" by Joseph Conrad, "My Fair Lady" by Louis Heman were among some of the books that had a wide circulation.

Ralph Connor has written a new book, "Gaspards of Pine Croft" that pleases a great number of persons and the new book by George Gibbs, "Fires of Ambition," has also been much sought after. "Happy Isles" by Basil King can be classed with this list, too, for many patrons of the library have been asking for it.

"The Lengthened Shadow," recently placed on the shelves is a typical William J. Locke tale and deals with a situation that is often found in books by Ethel M. Dell. One of the things that makes the story interesting is the absolute difference between two of the characters, both of whom are in love with the heroine. One is strong and brilliant, the other lame, but in the oft repeated phrase, pure gold at the bottom.

"The Lengthened Shadow" is the story of Suzanne Chastel, of her two guardians, and of her remarkable love story. One of the men, Peter Moordius, a man of affairs and a man of the work, a brilliant and entertaining companion, is, in the opinion of Suzanne, a guardian far beyond her dreams. The other, Timothy Swayne, is lame, apparently timid, and the exact opposite of Peter.

The girl, beautiful and headstrong, is left to the care of this queer pair and the action of the story begins when both men fall in love with her. It is necessary to obtain the consent of both guardians before Suzanne can marry—"and thereby hangs the tale."

Boys and girls who visited the children's department showed a strong interest in books of adventure and stories about school girl life. The books that the girls asked for were the Isabel Carleton series of Margaret Ashmun, which takes the heroine abroad, in the west and then tells a story of "The Heart of Isabel Carleton." The boys demanded books of adventure which ranged from Burgess' "Adventure of Danny Meadowmouse" to Howard Pyle's "Adventures of Pirates and Sea Rovers."

Rich County Raises Only $696 For Relief Of Destitute Germans

Campaign Committee May Be Forced To Launch Personal Solicitation If Voluntary Givers Do Not Respond To Worthy Cause

Only $696.70 has been reported by banks to date in the Outagamie-co campaign for funds of relief of the 7,000,000 starving children in Germany, according to a checkup by Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the citizens' committee of 50 in charge of the work.

Appleton has contributed $573.70 of this amount, leaving only a few dollars above the hundred mark which the remainder of the county has given.

This attitude toward the great humanitarian movement which America has started with sanction of President Calvin Coolidge is quite disappointing to the local committee. It is believed that sums running into the thousands rather than the hundreds ought to be given at the various banks by this time, as the campaign is nearly two weeks along.

Outagamie-co is far behind other counties of the state as a result of this indifference and the committee is considering seriously what its next step should be to provide a proper share of the $300,000 quota for Wisconsin. Some strongly favor a personal solicitation in every city, village and township.

Further time will be given for voluntary contributions, however. The committee feels that once the people know how sadly they have fallen down on their duty to the less fortunate, they will shower their dollars on the banks.

Those who have not given to relieve the suffering, starving, disease and death which are preying upon innocent multitudes over in Germany are urged to do so at once.

The German mark has fallen so low that widespread unemployment exists and money the people do earn will buy so little food that bodies go undernourished to an extent which brings tuberculosis and other diseases.

Everybody is urged to forget the wartime attitude toward these people and help save their lives. The women and children were not responsible for the country's enmity to the United States, nor are they responsible for the economic chaos which has placed them in their present plight. Gifts are wanted today. Delay means suffering, even death, for some of those whom you could feed without making a sacrifice.

FOUR MINOR FIRES KEEP FIREMEN BUSY

Four fires in Appleton kept the local fire department busy over the weekend. Three of these were chimney fires and occurred Saturday afternoon and Sunday evening. The fourth call came from the Appleton Engraving company, recently established in the former pumping station of the Appleton water works.

Upon opening a door of the oil burner heating system at the plant, a flame of fire burst forth and seemed to ignite escaping gas. The basement was filled with smoke but nothing was destroyed by fire.

The chimney fires caused no damage and occurred as follows: Home of Edward Engmann, 800 Madison-st, at 4:45 Saturday afternoon; home of Martin Van Ryzin, 766 Foster-st, at 5:35 Sunday evening; Moose hall, Morrison and North-sts, at 6:55 Sunday evening.

ROADS AGAIN ARE CLOSED TO CARS

Automobile traffic is again at a standstill on most rural highways. Busses are running to Kaukauna and Neenah, but traffic is blocked on highway 47 and side roads. Sunday three or four automobiles attempted to get through on the Mackville-rd but were forced to return after three miles of difficult pulling. Automobiles have been making headway as far as Greenville on the Hortonville-New London-rd and also a distance of a few miles west on the Dale-Medina-rd. The Freedom-rd and Ballard-rd are practically impossible to travel for any great distance, but the French-rd can be traveled by motor about 4½ miles north, it was reported by rural carriers.

Postpone Meeting

The semi-monthly meeting of the county-state road and bridge committee, scheduled to be held in the courthouse on Monday, has been postponed until the next meeting date.

TILLMAN'S RECORD STILL GOING BIG

"Just a Girl That Men Forget" Leads Sale Of Phonograph Records

"Just a Girl That Men Forget," a song which lauds the oldfashioned and frowns upon the so-called flapper, is the song that at the present time is claiming the attention of those who buy popular phonograph music, with "Lonesome and Blue" a possible second, although it can only be half on one make of record. These two songs have been the best selling pieces for a number of weeks, and if their sales is any indication of their popularity, they will maintain their importance for several more weeks.

"Berceuse," played on the violin by Percy Fullinwider and accompanied on the piano by his wife, Nettie Steninger Fullinwider, is a composition written by Mr. Fullinwider and one that has already made a name for itself in Appleton. "Last Night on the Back Porch" is still going big as a popular song and dance number.

The five records that were selected by Appleton phonograph dealers as the most popular at the present time are:

ON THE SCREEN

SHIPWRECK VOLCANO AND TYPHOON ARE THRILLS IN BIG DRAMA

The New Bijou Theatre will present today and Tuesday the new Associated Exhibitors photodrama, "Is Divorce a Failure?" with Leah Baird and adapted by her from Dorian Neve's stage play, "All Mine." "Is Divorce a Failure?" is said to be a drama with punch and power in every situation.

It tells the story of a divorced couple who find themselves and "the other man" vacation-bound on the same steamship. At night they crash into a derelict. The boat sinks and the three—the woman, her ex-husband and her husband-to-be, are cast on a volcanic tropical island. Here circumstances show the man in their true colors—and the woman her mistake.

"Is Divorce a Failure?" besides telling a strong dramatic story, presents four spectacular thrill punches. There is a fight to the death between a man and a hungry shark; a shipwreck in midocean; a volcano spouting forth fire and flame, a molten lava streaming down the side of the crater; and a roaring typhoon and tempest.

Arthur F. Beck, who presents "Is Divorce a Failure?" by and with Leah Baird, chose a splendid cast. Richard Tucker is cast as the husband, Walter McGrail as the other man, Tom Santschi as a two-fisted he-man and Alec B. Francis as the meddling but well-meaning friend. Wallace Worsley, who directed Miss Baird's previous success, "When Husbands Deceive," also wielded the megaphone for "Is Divorce a Failure?"

BLANCHE SWEET IN ANNA CHRISTIE AT THE ELITE

"Continent" was carefully considered by Eugene O'Neill in selecting the characters to tell his story of "Anna Christie," his great stage success. Thoma H. Ince followed the same plan in choosing the cast for the screen version of O'Neill's drama which Elite is showing today, Tuesday and Wednesday. This is a First National Release.

The doddering patriotic, yet terrible old Swedish sea captain has been created infinitely by George Marion, who immortalized the same role on the New York and London stage. "Anna," the cynical Swedish waif who is regenerated by her love for a man and the influence of the sea has been portrayed by Blanche Sweet as no other actress, other than Pauline Lord, who starred in the stage production, could have done.

William Russell, as the blustering young Irish lover, is "type" as well as "action" perfect. Eugenie Besserer plays "Marthy," the waterfront hag whose self abnegation marks one of the striking phases of the picture. Comedy relief situations are handled capably by Chester Conklin, Fred Kohler, George Seigmann, Ralph Yearsley and Victor Potel are all excellently cast as the "thick skin" peasant family on the Minnesota farm who play an important part in the life of "Anna Christie."

PEOPLE MUST OWN RAILS AND MINES TO CUT COAL COST

Labor Federation Officer Discusses Labor's Side Of Coal Controversy

Solution of the problem of the high cost of coal hinges upon the solution of the problems of the railroad industry it was contention of William Coleman, Milwaukee labor leader, in an address at the People's Forum in Lawrence Memorial chapel Sunday evening.

Mr. Coleman's address was intended to present the miners' side of the coal question, the operators point of view having been presented the Sunday previous by J. L. McMahon, Milwaukee coal operator.

The crowd which heard Mr. Coleman's address was below the average in size, which fact moved W. S. Ford, chairman of the People's Forum to urge greater attendance and better financial support, if the Forum is to be carried on. A musical program of pipe organ selections preceded the lecture. Dr. J. H. Tippett gave the invocation, and Fred Bachman, treasurer of the People's Forum and president of the Appleton Trades and Labor council, introduced the speaker of the evening.

ANSWERS M'MAHON

Answering the statement of Mr. McMahon that no reduction in bituminous coal prices is possible except by reduction of the price of labor, Mr. Coleman said it is a part of the general order of things to put the blame for all high cost of living on the shoulders of labor, and by labor he did not mean merely the men in the shops but all men and women who do useful work for society.

Whereas Mr. McMahon presented only the phase of the bituminous coal industry, Mr. Coleman dwelt mostly on that of the anthracite industry, because, he said, most people are interested in that class of coal and it is the coal most in demand for household purposes. Although there are overwhelmingly more square miles of soft coal than hard coal, this country annually uses only from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 tons of soft coal, as compared to 90,000,000 tons of hard coal.

A point that Mr. McMahon and other coal operators don't like to have the people understand, he said, is that seven of the largest companies in the United States control 80 per cent of all the present anthracite coal supply as well as 30 per cent of the future supply.

OWN RAILROADS TOO

The same directors that control the bulk of the coal supply, the speaker maintained, also own the railroads of the country. For that reason, the coal question and the transportation question are inseparably interlocked, and neither can be considered without the other. He read the names of 25 of the principal railroad directors, among which he mentioned William Rockefeller, H. S. Vanderbilt, and others, who control 82 per cent of the railroads of the country. The same directors through surety companies control the majority of the coal mines, he said.

The message he brought to the audience from the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor, of which he is an officer, is that one of the greatest necessities of this government is to own both the mines and the means of transportation and thus furnish the people with coal at cost.

"I believe," he said, "that coal was placed in the earth by God or Nature not for the exclusive profit of a few mine operators, but for the good of humanity. It should be the duty of the government to return to the people the natural resources."

WAGES UNSTEADY

He replied to Mr. McMahon's statement to the effect that some miners receive in wages as high as $35 a day, he said that in a few isolated cases a mechanic with the proper tools and a good run of coal under the very best of conditions might in one day earn as much as $35, but that the very next week he might have a day with conditions that would leave him with no wages whatever.

The mine workers are not to blame for the oversupply of men, he declared. This condition was brought about by the operators who have drafted immigrants for the mines. Today, while the anthracite mines are operating quite steadily, one half of the soft coal mines are idle.

Whereas coal operators made excess profits of 4,000 per cent during the war, he said, mine workers up to the year 1919 received an average yearly wage of $650 to $700. They work under hazards of life and limb, the death rate being high, and the rate of those who become crippled being one in six. Although the consumer pays for coal on the short ton of 2,000 pounds, the miner is paid on the basis of the long ton of 2,240, whereby the worker is cheated of 240 pounds on every ton he mines. The average wage of bituminous coal miners is $4 to $6 a day, and that of the anthracite miner $5 to $7.50 a day. The bituminous coal miner receives about $1 a ton, he declared.

LOCAL PROFITS LOW

The cost of loading anthracite on the cars is $3.49 to $5.29 a ton, the rest being profit to the mine operators, the railroads, the distributors and the local coal dealers. He said he did not blame the local dealers, for their profits are not excessive.

For the condition of the high cost of coal he did not blame the mine operators only—he blamed also the great mass of the American people which, he said, has power to change the conditions legally and peaceably.

He praised the voters of the Ninth congressional district for finally realizing the situation he pictured and sending to congress George J. Schneider of Appleton, with whom he serves as a member of the executive board of the state federation of labor, he said. Congressman Schneider is representing the idea that Wisconsin labor has advocated for years.

A BRITISH LABOR MINISTRY

The Labor Party of Great Britain is about to be asked to form a government. Ramsey MacDonald, its leader, will undoubtedly head the ministry. It has taken England several weeks to get over the attack of nerves that followed the recent election, when the results disclosed the necessity of turning power over to the Labor party.

Mr. MacDonald will accept the responsibility, and if we are to judge from statements he has made, he will pursue a moderate and conservative course, both in domestic and foreign policies. He has declared himself as strongly in favor of steps that will be conducive to peace throughout Europe, and this means a better understanding, if that be possible, between France and England. It is a question whether Mr. MacDonald will have greater opposition from the radical element within his own party or from the Conservatives and Liberals. The course followed by the two latter parties will be quite as interesting as that adopted by the first labor ministry in Europe. Conservatives will, of course, make no compromise, but with the Liberals it may be different. It is not impossible that they may find it to their advantage to support some of the policies of the Labor party, particularly if extremes are not attempted.

In any event, it is hardly likely that labor will receive a fair trial in its difficult task of handling the affairs of the British empire. It is generally expected its term of office will be of brief duration, but such calculations might be upset by a leader of Mr. MacDonald's capacity and resourcefulness. All in all, the labor government is probably a fortunate circumstance for Great Britain. Nothing revolutionary or wild is likely to develop. On the contrary, it may open the way to better understandings and to further national progress.

THINKING

It has been said that there are some people who think, and some who only think that they think — and there are many who do not even do that.

Man has an advantage over the lower animals in that he has hands with which he can grasp objects and move them according to his desires. Monkeys are able to grasp objects both with hands and feet, and some of them have prehensible tails. If hands were man's real reason for superiority, he would be no higher than the monkeys. But man's chief advantage over other animals is his ability to think and to reason. Possibly if this faculty were possessed by some animals they would evolve speech and language.

How many of us really exercise this wonderful faculty as we should? There are three things, any one of which we can do. We can refuse to think, and become blind followers of leaders who take us we know not or care not where, doing the bidding of those who think and plan; we can think wrongly, filling our minds with thoughts of a nature harmful to ourselves and of no advantage to others; or, we can think right thoughts and build ourselves up by our thoughts and the greater endeavors that grow out of them. It is written, "Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?" But that statement refers to physical stature, and it is by thought that mental stature is added to.

If a choice from a basket of apples were offered you, you would pass by the wormy ones, the decayed ones, the hard and gnarled ones, and the tasteless ones, and would select those of a pleasing flavor, of a firm and nourishing meat, and of a generous size. We can also select our thoughts, and if we are wise we will think on those things which will leave us in the end better for having thought over them. We will think on things that offer us opportunity to develop our minds and our activities in ways that will give profit and pleasure to ourselves and to others, both now and in later days.

HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS FOR PLEASURE

According to the annual report of the executive committee of the United States Golf association two millions of golfers paid $217,000,000 last year in the United States in dues, permits, golf equipment and caddie fees. That is approximately $108 spent in the year by each of the players, or practically nine dollars a month.

Golf is far more popular than it is generally believed to be. Offhand, few would fancy that this so-called "old man's game" and "middle-aged man's game" had so many devotees. It was originally a game of the well-to-do, but many cities have established public links which are patronized by hundreds of thousands of men and women.

We have been developing in the past ten years as a pleasure-loving people. We spend a vast total on baseball, tennis, football, golf, prize-fighting, horse-racing, state and county fairs, dancing, cards, pool, billiards, the photoplay, the theater, the opera, concerts and lectures. We have become a luxury-loving people, and we spend a lot of money on candy, cake, chewing gum, ice cream, confections and parties and household entertainment.

We are spending more money on pastime, entertainment, luxury and comfortable living than any people ever did. We hold the record of all times for expenditures on education. Yet, we have been and are saving money. Deposits in the savings banks are larger than ever. The people at large are investors in stocks and bonds to an enormous total. There are more home-owners than ever. We are investors in life insurance.

How is it possible for us to increase our expenditures for pastime, pleasure and comfort so greatly, and, at the same time, form the habit for thrift? The principal explanation is, of course, that family incomes are larger than ever in any country. Obviously, it would be impossible for us to be greater spenders and greater savers if there were not taking place a wider distribution of wealth.

THE EASY ROAD

Hendrik Willem Von Loon took a very dry subject, history, and wrote about it so interestingly that in two years the American people have paid one and a half million dollars to read his books. Van Loon thinks his books are popular because they are to the point instead of cluttered up with a mass of words and dates. He learned to write briefly when he was a newspaper correspondent cabling news from Russia at a dollar a word. It cost so much that brevity was compulsory.

Van Loon, now 41, was born in Holland. He is highly educated, a college professor. But, due to his foreign birth and training, he does not handle English as easily as the average American. He says: "I have to write very simply in order to make my meaning intelligible to myself."

Twenty years ago a man would have been called a crank if he had claimed that a book of routine history could be written so it would outsell the top-notchers of fiction. History, until a few years back, was not a popular subject. Obviously, the reason for this was that history had never been written simply and attractively. People are no hungrier for knowledge than in the past. They are reading history because it is being presented so it can be grasped quickly and without puckering the forehead and reading sentences twice.

The same is being done with the great sciences, by such men as Prof. J. Arthur Thomson, whose "Outline of Science" is as fascinating as Jules Verne. Fabre, the Frenchman, started the epidemic of popularization of knowledge, by his books about insect life.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

The "winter cough" of people along in years is usually chronic bronchitis. The victims are fairly free from cough in the summer time, but each fall it starts up again, in spite of all kinds of highly recommended "cough medicines." The reason it returns every winter is that our houses are overheated and hence too dry. Especially is this the case in homes where there are elderly folk with chronic bronchitis, and for two reasons: First, the notion that the bronchitis is due to cold weather encourages overheating; and second elderly people have a slow metabolism and therefore are inclined to feel cold so they insist upon coddling, under the erratic belief that excessive warmth of the air will maintain a comfortable body temperature—which is contrary to the actual fact. The body temperature is, if anything lowered by the continued breathing of overheated air. Let us try to explain how.

Overheated air is dry air. The higher you heat air the more you dry it out. Take the air of an ordinary winter day, which is, say, zero temperature bring it in and heat it up to 70 degrees Fahrenheit and you make it drier than any air of the driest desert, so dry that it cracks and warps the furniture. No matter how you heat it. It becomes a strain upon the respiratory mucous membrane of every one in the house, and especially the aged. Excessive evaporation is caused by the dried out air, from the respiratory membrane as well as from the skin. This means irritation, catarrh, cough, tendency to "colds," bronchitis. It also means a feeling chilliness, which the older people feel particularly. They call for more heat, which dries the air still more and aggravates the bronchitis, the bronchial catarrh, the dry catarrh.

The remedy is obvious. Stop trying to keep cool and warm, and try keeping cool and well. Let 64 to 67 degrees Fahrenheit be the household temperature, and let the thermometer rule, not any individual's momentary vacile feelings. This seems a trifle to read about but if you put it into practice you will begin to think there is something in it.

It is no joke, but a sad reality that old folks take their winter cold from the all too efficient heating plant.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Watering the Regular Baby

Please inform me what quantity of water a breast fed baby of 7 weeks should have daily, when it should be given, how, whether warm or cool, and how much at each time.—Mrs. T. J.

Answer—At that age an infant requires daily an amount of water equal to one-fifth of his own weight most of it being in the milk. Nearly three-fourths of the weight of a young infant is water; over half the weight of an adult is water. Plenty of water is necessary for an infant to aid digestion and the absorption of nutriments, to aid, the function of the bowel and that of the kidneys, and in warm weather to protect the baby from the depressing and often fatal effects of excessive heat. Offer the nursing infant some warm water (cool) water to an infant over 3 months of age) three times a day regularly, after regular feeding; a spoon preferably, then later from a cup; and allow all the baby cares to drink. Sometimes when a baby cries without apparent cause he is thirsty; a drink of water will make a great hit with him. Thirst is really what ails a lot of unfortunate infants on whom some folks wish "colic" and medicines even worse than colic.

Americans Too Tolerant With Those Who Slay

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, D. C. — The increasing ease and nonchalence with which murder is committed in this country is a matter of grave concern to all good Americans. It is impossible to pick up a newspaper nowadays without encountering the news of at least a half dozen new homicides that do not seem to be disturbing the serenity of the police. In one issue of a Washington journal, noted for its dignified and conservative treatment of news, we find these casual headlines: "Many men slain during Christmas. Four killed and two wounded in one Kentucky county." "Woman of 73 beaten to death in home." "Killed from ambush after church service." "Man who killed five dug up."

Any one of these items would be enough to keep conversation alive in London for at least a month, but over here the total number scarcely causes a comment. Our attitude toward crime reminds one of the famous nonsense rhyme: "Mary with the nursery shears, Cut off both the baby's ears; At the baby so unsightly, Mother raised her eyebrows slightly." We have become so accustomed to sensational crimes that a new murder or two scarcely causes even a tremor in our eyebrows.

EUROPE HAS FEW

In the past few years the murder rate in this country has risen with startling rapidity, far outstripping that of north European countries. It needs no statistics to prove this assertion; nevertheless they are interesting as a means of comparison. A recent investigation shows that in 1918 there were 20 times as many murders per 100,000 of the population in Cleveland as in London; that in 1921 Chicago had proportionately 14 times as many murders as Berlin; that in 1913 the chances that one would be murdered were 8 times as great in the United States as in Canada.

Since then, instead of improving, conditions are growing worse. According to figures recently made public by a big insurance company, for whom an exhaustive study of the subject was made, no less than 1,910 murders occurred in the year 1921 in 28 American cities with a total population of 20,558,770. The rate per 1,000 inhabitants was 9.3 as compared with 5.1 for the same places in 1900. In other words, murder has increased in our leading cities more than 82 per cent.

What are the reasons for such an abnormal per centage of murders over here? And why is it that crime is more popular among native Americans than it is among the foreign-born?

TOO TOLERANT

Students of the question declare that one of the chief reasons is our tolerant attitude toward crime, which makes it easy to escape conviction. In London the 17 persons who committed murder in the year 1922 were all promptly caught and convicted, whereas in New York, only a small number of the 260 guilty of murder were caught, and only three received the death sentence. Our legal procedure is such that poor and petty criminals are often punished more heavily than is just, while the important professional criminals escape the penalties of the law and prey at will upon society.

This is largely because the important professional criminal has money enough to throw innumerable legal clogs in the prosecuting machinery. The man who is compelled to steal an overcoat to pay for his dinner is likely to receive speedy punishment, but the man who steals $50,000 and knocks a bank clerk or two on the head in the bargain, stands a good chance of staying his conviction for at least a year if not indefinitely. It depends upon the efficiency of his bondsman and lawyer.

Q. Why has the grave of the Unknown Soldier no inscription? F. T.

A. The War Department says that the Unknown Soldier's grave at Arlington Cemetery has never been completed and for this reason there is no inscription upon it. Fifty thousand dollars is being asked of Congress at the present time for the completion of this monument.

Q. Are duets written for the phonograph and piano? H. M.

A. In order to make it possible for children to practice duets without another piano performer, such duets have been put on records for talking machines.

Q. How can leap years be determined? G. W. T.

A. Any year the number of which is divisible by four is a leap year, excepting century years, which must be divisible by 400. This was made necessary to account for a small fraction of time which could not otherwise be well adjusted.

Q. What was Clinton's Folly? M. M. F.

A. The Erie Canal has been known both as Clinton's Ditch and Clinton's Folly. The reference is to Governor Clinton's interest in the promotion of the Erie Canal project. The canal became a political question and this issue Clinton was elected Governor in 1817.

Q. How fast does the fastest United States submarine travel? H. E. C.

A. The fastest submarine in the United States Navy is the T- Boat type submarine designed for the speed of 20 knots per hour on the surface and about 8 or 9 knots per hour when it is submerged.

Q. What proportions are used in the old sulphur and molasses tonic? B. D.

A. The Public Health Service suggests that one heaping tablespoonful of sulphur be added to one half pint molasses.

THE REASON FOR THAT SAD, MOANING SOUND FROM WASHINGTON

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE WORLD

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

Tied up by the progressive bloc, with enough votes to keep either Republicans or Democrats from having a majority, Congress may not be able to do much else, but at least it can investigate.

It met after the holidays, with a number of matters to inquire into.

HOW ABOUT RUSSIA?

In turning down the Moscow government's efforts to renew Russo-American relations, was Secretary of State Hughes right in accusing Russia of trying to "raise the red flag over the White House?"

That's one question to be investigated.

WASHINGTON BOOTLEGGERS

Another matter to be probed is: Bootlegging in Washington.

It's reported evidence exists that high government officials drink. If so, why isn't this evidence made public? And where and how do they get the drinks?—in a (supposedly) dry country.

PHILIPPINE PROBLEMS

Philippine claims to independence are to be investigated. So are General Leonard Wood's methods as Philippine governor general.

In this connection mention's made of the wonderfully successful stock speculations of Wood's son, Osborne C., and the less successful oil ventures of another son, Leonard Jr. But it isn't very clear what his son's business transactions have to do with Wood's Philippine policies or with the question of Philippine independence.

MEXICO'S REBELLION

The government's sold some arms to President Obregon, to fight Mexican rebels.

This also's to be investigated. Objection's raised on the general ground that arms sales encourage war; on the particular ground that these arms may be used against Americans yet.

Thirty-five hundred marines left Quantico—nominally for maneuvers at Panama. But it's rumored Mr. government's uneasy over Mexico and wants them near Vera Cruz.

TROUBLED EUROPE

Ordinary law prevails again in Italy. Mussolini, Fascisti leader, has ended his dictatorship there.

There are fresh mutterings in the Balkans.

Greece hasn't finished changing from a monarchy into a republic. It may cause trouble yet. Rumania's angry over the king of Greece's enforced vacation. Italy's reported getting the Greeks under her thumb. This worries Italy's rival, Jugo-slavia. The war party's reported to have gained control in Bulgaria. To be spoiling to fight somebody, anybody.

Whiter Teeth in 10 Days

Make this free test. Combat the film

This is how countless people get the whiter teeth you admire. They combat the film that makes teeth cloudy. Millions do it daily. And so will you when you make this test and see what it means to your teeth.

It hides the luster

Film is that viscous coat you feel. No ordinary tooth paste can effectively combat it, so much of it remains. Soon it becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. That is how teeth lose their beauty.

Film also ruins teeth. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Protect the Enamel

Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combatant which contains harsh grit.

Few escape such troubles when they brush teeth in the old ways.

Dental science has now found two ways to fight that film. One disintegrates the film, one removes it without harmful scouring.

Able authorities have proved these methods effective. A new-type tooth paste has been created to apply them daily. The name is Pepsodent. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. Now careful people of some 50 nations use it every day.

Watch it act

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

You will always be glad that you made this test. Cut out coupon now.

FIGHTS FOR PAY AS H. S. PRINCIPAL

Leyal—Charges against O. A. Williams, former principal of the high school here, preferred by the school board, with a view to having his state license revoked, were heard on Saturday by State Supt. Callahan. His decision will be made on Monday, Mr. Callahan stated. Mr. Williams and counsel attended the hearing.

The charges against Mr. Williams are the outgrowth of a riot staged by the pupils of the high school on Nov. 11, a demonstration calculated to show their disapproval of the disciplinary measures put into effect by Mr. Williams.

The following day more than two-thirds of the enrollment, about 100 pupils, failed to return to school. It was part of a concerted movement to revolt at the state of affairs, it was alleged. It was then that the resignation of Mr. Williams was asked by the board. He declined flatly.

FINALLY FIND GRAVE OF NEENAH SOLDIER

Neenah—As an echo from the world war comes a letter from the war department to Mr. and Mrs. James Bach, informing them that the grave of their son, James Bach is in an American cemetery at Seringes-et Nesles, Aisne, France. The letter clears up the uncertainty which for five years has surrounded the fate of Private Bach. A member of Company L, Twenty-sixth infantry, he was killed on the afternoon of July 21, 1918, while his unit was engaged in driving the Germans from a railroad station near Soissons. Most of members of Company L perished in battle and records of the company were later destroyed.

MARINETTE GAINS IN DAIRY INDUSTRY

More Legume Crops, Silos And Purebred Herds Found On Farms There

Marinette — Rapid growth of the dairy industry in Marinette county since 1920 is evidenced in reports received from rural assessors at the office of the county clerk.

Reports indicate that the acreage of legume crops has been doubled since 1920. Three years ago, it is shown further, a bare eighth of the farmers had silos; today one in every three boasts a silo.

Dairymen, it would appear, are in general making consistent efforts to grade up their herds. Thirty per cent of the farmers are now using pure bred sires, assessors estimate.

Growth of alfalfa and soy beans has increased, the survey shows, by more than 1,000 per cent in three years.

That the tuberculosis test of every herd in the county be made compulsory, was the suggestion of M. E. Sibole, agricultural agent, in an address before the county board.

With eradication of tuberculosis among livestock the cattle would become the Mecca of cattle buyers, Mr. Sibole declared. Members of the board indorsed the plan, and action to ascertain the sentiment of farmers will be taken at the next election, according to present plans.

BARRON-CO FINISHES BOVINE T-B SURVEY

Barron—A report of the recent area retest for bovine tuberculosis in Barron-co has been made by John D. Jones, state commissioner of agriculture. The total number of cattle tested was 63,571, and the number of herds, 4,541. The total number of reactors found was six hundred forty-eight or 1.02 per cent of the whole number. Of these only eighteen were condemned as unfit for food purposes.

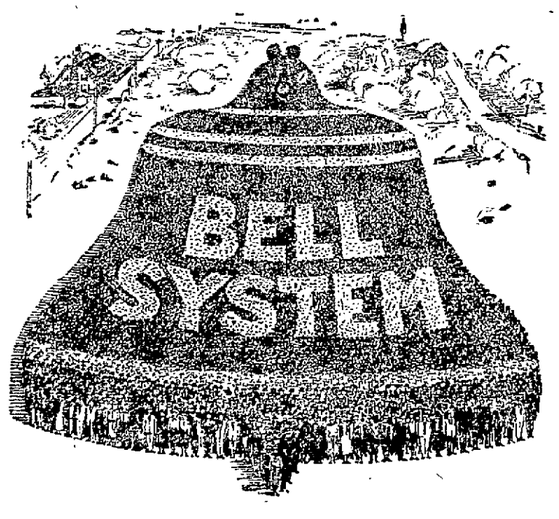

PARDONED PRISONER JOINS HIS FAMILY

Giving the Telephone Life

WHEREVER your thought goes your voice may go. You can talk across the continent as if face to face. Your telephone is the latch to open for you any door in the land.

There is the web of wires. The many switchboards. The maze of apparatus. The millions of telephones. All are parts of a country-wide mechanism for far-speaking. The equipment has cost over two billion dollars, but more than equipment is needed.

There must be the guardians of the wires to keep them vital with speech-carrying electrical currents. There must be those who watch the myriads of tiny switchboard lights and answer your commands. There must be technicians of every sort to construct, repair and operate.

A quarter of a million men and women are united to give nation-wide telephone service. With their brains and hands they make the Bell System live.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

BUY GERMAN RELIEF FOOD IN STATE, PLYMOUTH SAYS

Money raised in Wisconsin for relief of starving German children ought to be spent in this state for food, inasmuch as the commodities are bought in this country, according to a letter sent out by Plymouth Association of Commerce and urging Appleton Chamber of Commerce to help push this movement along.

What the sufferers lack most is milk, cheese and fats, according to the Plymouth chamber. Wisconsin is the best dairy market in the country and most ably can supply just what is wanted. The proposal will be given consideration here.

First Concert

The Y. M. C. A. Glee club will make its first appearance at a Sunday afternoon meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building early in February. George Nixon is director.

REALTORS MEET IN MADISON FEB. 19

Program preparations are under way for the annual convention of the Wisconsin Association of Real Estate Brokers, according to word received by Daniel P. Steinberg, president of Appleton Real Estate board, and a director of the state organization.

The meeting will be held at Madison Feb. 19, 20 and 21. It will be a 2-part convention, with one set of discussion conferences for city brokers and another group for farm dealers. Making of proper appraisals will be one of the principal topics, and speakers also will point out the trend of land values and the outlook for the future.

TIPS FOR TAXPAYERS

NUMBER 12

Deductions for business expenses form the largest claims in the returns and necessary expenses incurred in carrying on any business trade, profession, or vocation are allowable deductions.

Typical expenses of a mercantile establishment are amounts paid for hire of employes, rent, light, heat and water, telephone advertising, insurance, delivery expenses, the cost of operating delivery wagons and motor trucks, and incidental repairs to such vehicles. The expenses of a manufacturing business include labor, raw material, light, heat, and power, selling cost, administration, and similar charges.

A professional man may claim as deductions the cost of supplies used by him in his practice, expenses paid in the operation and repair of an automobile used in making professional calls, dues to a professional society, subscriptions to professional journals, office rent, the expenses of fuel, light, water, and telephone used in his office, and the hire of assistants.

The farmer may deduct all amounts paid in the production and harvesting of his crops, including labor, cost of seed, and fertilizer used, cost of minor repairs to farm buildings (but not the dwelling,) fences, machinery, and small tools used up in the course of a year or two.

Traveling expenses, when the trip is solely on business, including the entire cost of meals and lodgings while away from home, are deductible.

Deductions for business expenses must have certain qualities to be allowed. They must relate to a business, trade, profession, or vocation in which the taxpayer has invested time or money for the purpose of a livelihood or profit. A business may be carried on by a taxpayer, even if all its activities are conducted by employes. A taxpayer may conduct more than one trade or business and claim a deduction for the business expenses of each, provided he devotes sufficient time and attention to each.

Perhaps I'm foolish, Little Marquise, in writing these things to you. Probably in the happy go lucky court life you knew nothing about all these little details of living in this splendid new world which you never saw.

I think perhaps I am telling you these things just as you put all your lover's protestations and your own letters to him in [illegible] drawer. You wanted to tell them [illegible] to yourself, didn't you? Some day I will destroy them all just as you did your heart's secrets.

I am so worried over Jack. Last night he did not come home to dinner and it was very late when he came in. I pretended to be asleep but his breath was so heavy with the fumes of liquor that it filled the entire room. He tried to be very quiet but when he stumbled against a chair I heard him swearing under his breath.

This morning he was grouchy as could be and sullenly answered me when I asked a question and when poor little Junior gave his croupy cough he asked, "Isn't it possible for that doctor to stop that child's cough? I presume he only is trying to run up a bill on us. I seem [illegible] I am doing nothing lately but pay out money."

"Why, Jack," I answered, "I haven't asked you for a cent of money since I have been ill and I [illegible] paid a great many of the little bills out of that thousand dollars dad gave me."

"I wish to God you hadn't. If I had a thousand dollars right now it would help me a lot in my business."

"But Jack, you often told me that you were on salary and commission at the Acme."

"Well, I am, but I can't always stay on a salary and commission, can I? I've got a chance to go into a business which promises a hundred per cent."

My heart sank, little Marquise. I was almost sure that what Ruth had feared was true and I knew that if Mr. Bullock of the Acme Company should [illegible] Jack had been dabbling in stocks he would [illegible] him. For I have heard him say a number of times that he considered playing the stock market on margin the worst kind of gambling and he would not keep a man in his employ a day if he thought he was doing it. He said he would always be afraid to trust an employe with any money under these circumstances.

"I'm awfully sorry, Jack, that we have not saved any money. But surely you will get a raise this fall and your commissions will be larger all the time."

"There you go, Leslie, counting your chickens before they hatch. I might as well tell you that is just what I have been doing. I spent my last commission before I got it. I am up to my last cent and I dare not ask old Bullock for more."

Adventures Of The Twins

Little Mrs. Brown Hen

"Come here," beckoned Mister Dodger to the Twins. "What do you make of this?"

Nancy and Nick crouched down beside the fountain where they could see and hear, but where they could not be seen themselves.

But they need not have been afraid, for the chickens were having a meeting and when people are [illegible] nobody is right but themselves [illegible]

Mrs. Puff Orpington was speaking. [illegible] Farmer Brown [illegible]

[illegible] Plymouth Rock [illegible] Mayflower and landed at Plymouth Rock. [illegible]

[illegible] Missez Bantam. "My great grandfather was the first [illegible] in America. He won the biggest cock fight ever held [illegible]"

"Humph," [illegible] Missez Black Minorca. "That's something to be ashamed of, not proud of. I shouldn't [illegible] if I were you, Missez Bantam. But they do say that small people are always talking of their own importance. You'd make pretty poor pickings [illegible] meal."

Missez Rhode Island Red [illegible] up modestly at this. "Yes, I should say so. When it comes to showing one's [illegible] keep, I flatter myself that I have some meat on my bones. [illegible] eggs [illegible] than any in Squeaky-Moo Land. I have heard Farmer Brown say so and besides I have eyes in my own head."

"Well of all things!" put in Missez White Leghorn. "As though I didn't have the record for laying. White Leghorns are the best laying hens in the world."

At that minute Mister Dodger stepped into the circle and pointed to little Missez Brown Hen who had not said a word.

"Look here, ladies," he said politely. "You're all wrong. Here is the Champion Egg Layer of Squeaky-Moo Land. She's too modest to boast but she hasn't missed a day since last Christmas and she has no [illegible] results to speak of, either. She eats less and works harder than any one I know."

And what do you think, my dears? Those hens all crowded around and apologized. They were kind-hearted in spite of their foolishness.

75 BOYS ATTEND HUSTLERS' DINNER

Youngsters Start Another Dash To Win Honors For Good Living

("Hey, Mr. Denny, if I read my Bible tonight when I get home will it count on my card?"

This question and dozens of similar ones showed the spirit which filled the boys who attended the Hustlers banquet at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening. About 75 boys of about 100 who are signed up to participate in the contest attended the banquet and heard the explanation which followed.

The Hustlers' program is a four-square program, each participant in the contest agreeing to stand for clean speech, clean sports, clean habits and clean scholarship. The contest runs for three months closing on April 19. Each boy was given a Hustler's card telling the things for which points are awarded. Regular attendance at church, Sunday school, Sunday meetings and club meetings, and securing new members in each of these groups gives a boy a substantial number of points.

Credit is given for high marks in school, Bible study, good reading, educational tours and a report on them, participation in plays or Y. M. C. A. stunts, memorizing selections of poems or verses of the Bible, thrift, work on a hobby and home spirit.

The supreme hustler, the name given the boy securing the highest number of points, has first choice of the prizes and will have his name engraved on the fireplace "C."

WEATHER WARMING UP FOR POSSIBLE SNOWFALL TUESDAY

Appleton was visited by another drop in the temperature Sunday and Monday, but rising temperature and possibly snow was the weather forecast for Tuesday. At 8 o'clock Sunday morning Schlafer's thermometer registered 8 degrees below zero and at 7 o'clock Monday morning the registration was again 8 degrees below. At 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon the temperature reached 8 degrees above zero, while at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon it registered 12 above.

COUNCIL INVITED TO M'GREGOR TALK

Mayor Henry Reuter and members of the common council will be guests of the chamber of commerce at the forum dinner at 6:15 Tuesday evening at Hotel Appleton at which Ford H. MacGregor of Madison, will speak on "Managerial Government of Cities."

Reservation for the dinner was comparatively light up to Monday morning, but it was believed that many more requests for plates would be filed because of the opportunity given the people to learn how the city manager plan operates.

"I don't know how people would expect to vote on an issue of this kind if it ever come up unless they knew something about it," said Secretary Hugh G. Corbett. "I am anxious to have large numbers of our people hear Mr. MacGregor, because he can explain this system better than anybody else in Wisconsin."

65 BOYS HEAR TALK BY CROSS AT "Y" ON SUNDAY

Sixty-five boys heard C. Willard Cross at the meeting in the boys division of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. He spoke on the "3 B's" which he said were Brains, Blood and Backbone. Following the talk a picture, Hoffman's "The Boy Christ," was presented by the Sophomore Triangle club to the boys' department. The presentation was made by Robert Packard. Mayor Carl Engler received the picture in behalf of the boys. Special music was rendered by Harold Frenck and Everett Roudebush and refreshments were served.

Failed In Trip To This City By Automobile

Drivers of automobiles cannot go from Appleton to Milwaukee with roads in their present condition. Dr. H. A. Hoyer of Milwaukee discovered this fact when he attempted to reach here Sunday to visit his father, Dr. G. C. Hoyer, medical director of the Aid Association for Lutherans.

The autoist left Milwaukee at 12 o'clock noon and succeeded in reaching Oshkosh with little difficulty. He found the roads badly drifted between there and Neenah, however, and after having to be hauled out of snowbanks by a condescending farmer, he turned back to Oshkosh and left his car there. He finished his trip here by train and arrived at 9 o'clock at night. Dr. Hoyer expected to drive back to Milwaukee from Oshkosh Monday.

The farmer who hitched his team to pull the automobile out of the drifts won the thanks of the Milwaukee man. He not only extricated the car but refused to take a cent of pay and even had the doctor stop for a meal.

$1,500 OFFERED TO BETTER CITIES

Appleton is asked to join the statewide better cities contest which is being launched by the Wisconsin Conference of Social work, according to a letter received by the chamber of commerce. Prizes of $1,000 and $500 will be given the winners.

The contest is for second, third and fourth class cities and will be in progress from May 1, 1924 to May 1, 1925. The object is to stimulate pride in civic life affecting child welfare, family life and community well being. It aims to promote activities among municipalities, improve morals, recreation, health and education and stimulate other projects relating to the human side of industrial and community life.

Awards will be based on educational facilities, home and family life, library equipment and use, recreational facilities and participation, industrial working conditions, community health, and public and private welfare work.

NOT MUCH ADO OVER NEW DANCE HALL RULES

The first day of dance hall regulation under the county dance hall ordinance passed several weeks ago and effective Monday brought no great influx of applications for dance hall licenses and permits at the office of John D. Hantschel, county clerk. An application for license and permits was on file coming from the proprietor of a roadhouse that operates daily, and another application for a permit for a single dance was received from a group of Appleton persons.

Appointments of temporary dance hall inspectors made by county supervisors have not all been filed with the clerk. Beginning Monday all public dances must come to a close at 1 o'clock in the morning, according to the new ordinance.

ATHENA SOCIETY GIVES INITIATION DINNER

Athena Literary society of Lawrence college gave its annual initiation dinner in the French room of Conway hotel at 6:30 Saturday night. The tables were decorated with bouquets of sweet peas. About 30 guests were present, including the patronesses, who are Mrs. E. I. Dunn, Mrs. John Farley and Mrs. Earle Emme.

Boys' Leaders Meet

John TeSelle led the discussion on awards at the meeting Sunday afternoon of the training class for boy leaders at the Y. M. C. A. The next discussion will be on the leader's relation to the church. Fifteen members are enrolled in the class. At the close of the course those having completed the work will be recognized in some fitting way by the local Y. M. C. A.

Walter Bell Opens Hostilities By Chasing Rubber Across Hostile Goal In First Ten Minutes Of Play

Appleton Sunday got off to a brilliant start in the Fox River Valley hockey schedule when Walter Bell and his constellation of stars humbled the Neenah team, 3 to 1. Speed and endurance won the contest for the Appleton pucksters, despite the greater experience of their opponents. The invaders rushed the Legion men off their feet, and the only point scored by the home team was due to a fluke.

Walter Bell scored the first point in the initial period when he chased the elusive puck across the goal after about ten minutes of play. The Neenah men were rushed off their feet from the start and seldom got within striking distance of the Appleton goal.

In the second period the home team tightened its defense, and although the invaders were in hostile territory most of the time, they were unable to cross Neenah's goal until near the end of the second 20-minute period, when Frasher, Appleton goalkeeper, slammed the rubber disk over.

NEENAH MAKES SPURT

The home team sent the puck into Appleton territory early in the third period by a desperate spurt, and while the men were fighting fast and furious in the first few minutes, one of the Neenah players knocked the rubber against Percy Sharp's skate, from which it carommed off and over the goal. Five minutes later Sharp shoved it over the Neenah line once more. The rest of the period was uneventful. The Bellmen kept the puck in Neenah territory, and the Legion players contented themselves with defensive tactics.

Carl Frasher played a wonderful game as a goaltender, and the Sharp brothers lived up to their reputations as speed kings on the ice.

More than 500 fans attended the contest, about 50 accompanied the Appleton team.

The Kaukauna team was beaten, 6 to 3, by the Oshkosh veterans at Oshkosh. The Electric City team put up a good battle and chased the puck across the Oshkosh goal line twice in the first period, but was unable to keep up the pace in the second, when the home team made six points.

Blues Trim Columbia By Big Margin

Lawrence Saturday completed its barnstorming tour of Iowa by humbling the much-touted Columbia college team of Dubuque, 28 to 15. The Blues appeared somewhat tired during the early part of the game, and didn't get started until the last five minutes of play, when they scored 12 points.

This victory was the third of the tour. Dubuque university's quintet was the only team which beat the Lawrence cagers on the trip, and the showing made by his men was beyond Coach A. C. Denney's fondest expectations. As a consequence of their three brilliant victories against some of the strongest teams in Iowa, the Lawrence cagers are looking forward to a highly successful conference season. Their first test in the conference comes Friday in Armory G, where they clash with Ripon.

HOPPIES WEINERS CLINCH HOLD ON VALLEY PIN LEAD

Jenss Arcades Meet Defeat But Retain Claim To Second By Scant Margin

Hoppies Weiners Sunday kept their lead in the Fox River Valley Bowling league when they humbled the Electric City five two games out of three at the Arcade alleys. Jenss Arcades, another Appleton team, still occupy second place with a lead of one match, while the Electric Cities are third.

Sunday was a big day in the valley league. Hoppies Weiners met and vanquished the fourth place Electric City five, while the Jenss Arcades fought the strong Neenah Taxis for a better hold on second place, and dropped the match when Neenah took two out of three games. This put the Arcades' lead down by one match, but they retained a precarious hold on second.

"Bill" Shad, state president of the Wisconsin Elks has assured the local committee that he will visit the tourney with his own team and while the chief of the Badger herd who is one of the best presidents the Elks have ever had, admits he knows little about bowling, he's ready to shoot at the mark and is going to be accompanied by a following from Milwaukee lodge of thirty teams. Exalted Ruler Chauncey Yockey of the Milwaukee lodge has entered his won "special" team in the event and it is said that the team will issue a challenge to all comers at the close of the tournament.

Seniors And Girls Are Urged To Get In Entries For Skating Tournament

Valuable Gold And Silver Trophies Offered To Winners In Second Annual Ice Classic

Skaters! Attention!

The second annual ice skating tournament to determine the champion skaters of Appleton will be held on the Jones park rink on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 3. The Post-Crescent, under whose auspices the tournament is conducted, invites every amateur skater in Appleton to compete in the races. There is no entry fee and no expense of any kind to the skaters. Gold and silver medals will be given the winners of first and second places in each of the eleven events and a silver loving cup goes to the winner of the championship which will be determined by a point system.

Entries must be in by Friday, Jan. 25, less than two weeks off. International Skating Union rules will govern the races and a small army of competent officials will be on hand to see that the races are run off in good order.

Senior skaters especially are invited to get into this tourney. The number of entries from this class and from the girls is disappointingly small. The future of ice skating tournaments, of course depends upon the success of this year's venture. The tournament was ordered for this year because of the requests of skaters who took part in last year's classic.

Skaters are urged to get in their entries as soon as possible so that an idea can be gained of the number of skaters. An interesting afternoon, with possibilities of winning valuable prizes, is in store for the skaters.

Fill out the entry blank printed on this page and mail or bring to the skating editor of the Post-Crescent. Indicate the events you will enter. Skaters already entered are urged to interest their friends in the races so that the entry list will be truly representative of the best skating talent of Appleton.

Enacted by the County Board of Outgamie County in pursuance of authority granted by Chapter 222 of the Laws of 1923 creating subsection (8) of Section 59.08 of the statutes.

The County Board of Outagamie County do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. No person shall hold, conduct or be present at a public dance within the county of Outagamie except such as may be held within a public dance hall or pavilion or on premises duly licensed to be used as such under the provisions of this ordinance. A "public dance" as used in this ordinance shall mean any dance at which admission can be held by the public generally upon payment of an admission fee or by the purchase, possession or presentation of a ticket or token, or in which a charge is made for the caring of clothing or other property, or by any dance to which the public generally without restrictions may gain admission with or without payment of a fee, or a dance operated for profit. The term "public dance hall" as used herein shall be taken to mean any room, place or space at which a public dance may be held, or any hall or academy in which classes in dancing are held and instruction in dancing given for hire. Neither the term "public dance" nor the term "public dance hall" shall be construed to apply to a dance conducted in a church or parochial school hall or to such place when conducted under the auspices of a Parent-Teachers' association in conformity to law and the rules of the proper school authorities, nor to a dance conducted by lodges or fraternal orders, nor to the place at which the same may be held. The term "supervisor" as used herein means a county supervisor representing the respective towns, villages and wards of the county board of supervisors.

SECTION 2. Application for license for a public dance hall may be made by petition signed by the owner or tenants of the premises for which a license is sought direct to the county board, and accompanied by a license fee of ten dollars. Such license shall be granted by the county board in case a majority of the same vote in favor thereof, and shall be denied otherwise, provided that between sessions of the county board such license may be granted by the chairman of the county board, subject to the approval of such license by such board at its next meeting. The license shall expire one year after its date of the next meeting of the county board following the expiration of such year. Such license shall not be transferable as to person or location.

SECTION 3. No person shall hold or conduct a public dance except in compliance with a written permit to be issued by the county board by the respective supervisor acting for the county board upon application therefor made at least three days prior to the date of the holding of such public dance and the payment to the said supervisor by the said applicant of an inspection fee of five dollars for each inspector required. The said supervisor shall issue such permits for dances to be held only at duly licensed public dance halls.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of said supervisor on behalf of the county board upon the issue of said permit forthwith to notify the inspector for the district in which the public dance is to be held, and it shall be the duty of such inspector to be present at such dance to see that the laws of the state, the ordinances, rules and regulations of the county and local ordinances, rules and regulations of the county are complied with and enforced and for this purpose such inspector shall have the powers of a deputy sheriff. Such inspector shall, within one week after holding of any such public dance, file a report in writing with the said supervisor and with the county clerk as to the general conduct of such dance, the general demeanor of those present thereat and any violations of law, ordinances or rules and regulations governing the same which may come under his observation. Such report of the inspector shall be filed by the county clerk and embodied in his next report to the county board at its annual meeting. Such inspector, while present at any such dance, in case of any such violation or noncompliance, or in case of any gross, violent or vulgar disorder or conduct on the part of those present at such dance, may, in the name of the county, order such dance discontinued and the dance hall closed.

SECTION 5. The county supervisor of the respective towns, villages and wards of cities under this act, immediately upon passage of this ordinance and annually thereafter, shall cause to be prepared a list of names of suitable persons from each town, village or ward of the county who are qualified to act as dance hall inspectors, and shall submit such list to the county board for election as such inspectors. Inspectors so elected by the county board shall qualify within ten days thereafter by filing with the county clerk a bond conditioned upon the proper performance of their regular duties. Such bond shall be approved as to form and sureties by the respective county supervisors of said town, villages or ward of cities under this ordinance and by the chairman of the county board.

SECTION 6. In case it shall be impossible for an inspector to be present at any dance by reason of the requisition of his presence at some other dance at the same time, or for any other reason, he shall at once appraise his respective supervisor of such fact, who shall then notify any other inspector who is available and who is nearest the locality where such dance is to be held. In case no other inspector is available, the supervisor shall appoint some suitable inspector to act temporarily or such supervisor may act instead of the inspector.

SECTION 7. Dance hall inspectors shall receive compensation in the sum of Five Dollars for each dance inspected.

SECTION 8. The following rules and regulations shall govern the conduct, operation and management of all public dances:

a. At no public dance shall the presence of any person under sixteen years of age be permitted unless such person is accompanied by parent or legal guardian.

b. Public dances shall be discontinued, and public dance halls closed for the night on or before one o'clock A. M. No public dances shall be conducted between such closing hours and eight o'clock A. M. The respective county supervisors may, upon written application, by special permit in writing relieve any licensees from the provisions of this rule, but each such permit shall except one dance only and shall be issued not more than ten days prior to the holding of such dance, except on Saturday night, when the closing hour shall be from 12 o'clock midnight until 8 o'clock A. M., Monday.

c. The possession, drinking or offering to another of intoxicating liquors shall not be permitted, either in a public dance hall or on the premises on which it is situated.

d. The participation in a public dance of persons under the influence of liquor or drugs shall not be permitted.

e. Idlers of loiterers shall not be permitted to remain either in a public dance hall or on the premises on which it is situated.

f. All dances held in the night time shall be kept well and sufficiently lighted at all times.

g. All dance halls shall close at midnight Saturday night.

h. All dance halls shall have suitable toilets and no pass out checks shall be issued.

SECTION 8-A. Any licensee hereunder may be permitted to maintain at such public dance hall, dance pavilion or other public place of amusement a stand for the sale and dispensing of nonintoxicating beverages provided he shall have first obtained from his local town board, village board of common council a license permitting him to dispense and sell intoxicating drinks, and it is hereby declared illegal for said licensee to maintain any stand for the sale of liquid refreshments or to suffer to permit the sale of any sort of drinks on said premises or any portion thereof during the time while the public is in attendance at such licensed entertainment, unless he shall have first obtained and have posted in his hall such local license for the sale of nonintoxicating beverages.

SECTION 9. The county county board shall promptly, after three days' notice and a hearing, revoke the license of any person who shall violate any provision of this ordinance. Between sessions of the county board, the chairman of the county board shall promptly revoke the license of any person who shall violate any provision of this ordinance; provided, that such license so revoked by the chairman may be reinstated by the county board at its next session, if, upon petition by the licensee, the board shall be of opinion that the action of the chairman in revoking such license was improper.

SECTION 10. Upon the revocation of any dance hall license, no new license shall be issued either to the same licensee or to a different licensee for the same dance hall within thirty days following the date of such revocation.

SECTION 11. The sheriff of the county and all deputy sheriffs regularly appointed and qualified to act as such shall have the same powers to enforce the provisions of this ordinance as have the dance hall inspectors, and when acting as inspectors upon request of the supervisor shall receive the same compensation as is provided for dance hall inspectors.

SECTION 12. All fees provided herein, excepting the Five Dollar permit fee shall be paid into the county treasury, and the compensation of inspectors shall be paid by the respective supervisors, but no compensation shall be made for any inspection except for which a written report has been filed as provided in Section 4 of this ordinance, and the various supervisors shall receive as compensation the sum of Ten Dollars per annum for each hall licensed in his district out of the said county funds, to be paid as other county moneys are paid.

SECTION 13. All cities and villages in Outagamie county shall be included under the provisions of this ordinance, and shall be so included until further action by this board.

SECTION 14. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, or shall falsely represent the age, parentage or guardianship of any child under sixteen years of age in order to secure the admittance of such child to a public dance, or to secure permission to such child to continue to attend such dance, shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars and not more than Two Hundred Dollars or by imprisonment for not more than 30 days in the county jail, or workhouse, and as an additional penalty thereto the license or licenses of the person so violating the provisions of this ordinance may be revoked.

SECTION 15. This ordinance shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Passed and approved November 28, 1923. Geo. F. Fiedler, chairman of Outagamie County Board of Supervisors. Attest, John E. Hantschel, county clerk. Published January 14, 1924.

AN ORDINANCE

The Board of Supervisors of Outagamie County, Wisconsin, Ordains as follows:

Relating to the operation of motor vehicles on the public highways in Outagamie County, Wisconsin.

SECTION 1. (1) Whenever the operators or drivers of vehicles or draft animals shall meet on any highway each shall seasonably drive his vehicle or animal to the right of the middle of the traveled part of the highway so that each shall have one-half of the roadway and that they may pass without interference.

(2) Every such operator or driver on overtaking any vehicle or draft animal on any highway shall pass on the left side thereof, and the operator or driver overtaken shall with all convenient speed upon signal or notice that passage is required, drive to the right of the center of the traveled part of the highway so as to allow a free passage on the left, and if necessary on account of road conditions shall stop long enough to allow the other to pass.

(3) Every such operator or driver shall keep to the right of the center of highway intersections when turning to the right and shall pass to the right of such center when turning to the left.

(4) The operator of any vehicle on a highway shall have the right of way over any vehicle approaching him from the left at every highway intersection, except when a police officer shall be in actual charge of the traffic at the intersection.

(5) Except when making absolutely necessary repairs, no person shall park or leave any vehicle along, upon, or within the limits of any public highway in such manner as to interfere with the free passage of vehicles over and along such highway. In all cases there shall be left a free and usuable passageway of at least eighteen feet so that vehicles going in opposite directions may pass without interference from any standing vehicle.

(5-A) Every operator or driver of a motor vehicle or bus shall when about to stop for discharging or taking on passengers, or for other stops, give due signals of his intention to traffic in the rear and turn to the extreme right so as to allow free passage of vehicles over and along such highway.

SECTION 2. (1) No person under the age of sixteen years unless accompanied by an adult and no intoxicated person shall operate any automobile, motor truck, motor delivery wagon, automobile bus, motorcycle or other similar motor vehicle on any highway of Outagamie county.

(2) No person shall operate a motor vehicle recklessly or at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper with regard to the width, traffic and use of the highway and the rules of the road, or so as to endanger the property, life or limb of any person, and no person shall operate any such vehicle along any highway in any city or village or through any hamlet which contains more than ten houses and places of business at a rate of speed exceeding fifteen miles per hour, except where the houses and places of business shall average more than two hundred feet apart, where a safe rate of speed not exceeding twenty miles an hour may be used; nor elsewhere on any public highway at a speed exceeding thirty miles per hour; and no person shall operate such motor vehicle through any cemetery or county hospital or poor farm grounds or any park or in passing any school grounds at a speed exceeding fifteen miles per hour. In turning corners and going around curves at sharp declines, at the intersection of any street or crossroad and where the view in the direction in which the vehicle is proceeding shall be obstructed, the driver shall so limit the speed of such vehicle as shall tend to avoid accidents.

SECTION 3. (1) Every automobile, motorcycle, or other similar motor vehicle, used upon any public highway of this county, shall be provided with efficient brakes and an adequate bell, horn or other signal device. No person shall use any signal device which shall not produce an abrupt sound sufficiently loud to serve as an adequate warning of danger and no person operating any motor vehicle or motorcycle shall make or cause to be made any unnecessary noise with any such bell, horn or other signal device, or use the same except as a warning of danger. The use of siren horns except upon motor vehicles in charge of the police and fire department of cities and upon hospital ambulances and fire patrols is prohibited.

(2) It shall be unlawful, for any person to operate any automobile, motorcycle, or other similar motor vehicle, without a modern and improved muffler or with its muffler open on any highway or street within Outagamie County, Wisconsin.

SECTION 4. (1) From thirty minutes after sunset until thirty minutes before sunrise, no automobile, motorcycle or other similar motor vehicle shall be driven upon or occupy any public highway in this county unless such vehicle is provided with sufficient lights, of such design and so adjusted and operated as to render the use of the highway by such vehicle safe for all the public.

(2) The minimum requirements for head lamps or any automobile or other similar motor vehicle, except motorcycles, while being driven upon the highway, shall be such as to enable the driver to clearly distinguish a person, vehicle or other substantial object two hundred feet ahead, and the design, adjustment and operation of such head lamps shall be such as to avoid dangerous glare or dazzle.

SECTION 5. Any person who owns or has the direction or control of any vehicle operated upon any highway for the conveyance of passengers, and who shall employ as a driver of such and continue in their employment any person who is addicted to drunkenness or the excessive use of intoxicating liquors shall forfeit five dollars per day for all time during which he shall have kept such driver in such employment.

SECTION 6. Whenever any person operating an automobile, motorcycle or similar motor vehicle shall injure any person therewith he shall stop and give assistance, his name and address, and the name and address of the owner of the automobile, motorcycle or other similar motor vehicle so operated, to the person so injured, or any bystander who shall request such information on behalf of the injured person.

SECTION 7. (1) Every person operating an automobile or other similar motor vehicle upon or along any public highway of the county shall upon a signal by putting up the hand or other sign of distress made by a person riding or driving a horse or horses which are frightened, cause such automobile or other similar motor vehicle to stop unless a movement forward is necessary to avoid accident or injury and upon request shall stop all motor power until such horse or horses are under control; and shall, if requested, assist such person or persons to pass such automobile, or other similar motor vehicle in safety.

(2) Every owner and operator of any automobile or other similar motor vehicle shall have equal rights upon all public highways of this county with all other users of such highways, and no person or persons shall in any way obstruct or impede the right of traffic of such operator or owner while operating, propelling or driving such automobile or other similar motor vehicle.

SECTION 8. New Mid-Season Hats----
For Wisconsin or Florida

These new hats are really advance Spring models—and are shown for town wear in the cities—as well as for Southern resort use.

Hats from Rubin

Copenhagen blue Milan makes the crown of this small hat from Rubin. The turned-up brim is of Copen and sand ostrich and chenille.

A turban from this maker is of black Italian Milan —— with a band of blue-black wings and black oiled ostrich.

Another Milan hat using ostrich and chenille for a brim also has a quill made of this combination.

Hats from Philmont

A Copenhagen blue Milan hat from Philmont has a mushroom brim wound turban-fashioned in black taffeta. There is a smart Rhinestone ornament over the face.

This maker also shows an unusual Russian hat for bobbed hair.

Matronly Hats from Holland

This designer specializes in exclusive hats for matronly women. An early Spring model is of purple Canton, with the sides of the brim covered with silk and velvet foliage.

Another Holland hat is of dark navy hair braid and is nearly covered with Copenhagen blue grapes and flowers. The hat is covered with maline.
